Foundations of Our Covenant PARTNERSHIP*

The Power and Purpose of Partnership
Through God's Word we understand that partnership in ministry is the most powerful relationship on the face of the earth. It is a covenant relationship of the highest honor and commitment. And it is all based on the covenant Jesus made with us through His death, burial and resurrection.

God designed Partnership
Yes, to give us the Body of Christ—the advantage over everything in life. Paul tells is in Ephesians 4:7 that Christ (the Anointed One) has given every one of us a measure of His grace (His Anointing). Verse 16 tells us that as we are joined perfectly together, the Body of Christ increases in love. Our purpose is that as we share the anointing of Christ each of us carries, we are more effective in ministry of the good news that God love the world and gave us His Sons.

The Prophet's Reward
There are both earthly and heavenly rewards in making covenant connections. Gods has ordained some of us to be His "frontline" people, going forward to speak His Word to multitudes or to engage the battle in the public arena. Other of us are "home front Partner who supports the front liners in prayer and faith. And, as we see in the life of David, whatever his reward was as a frontline person, in all hiss assignments from the Lord, he shared with his partners. No partner is left behind or left without when it comes to rewards God has for any of us

The Principle of Sowing and Reaping
Partnership in ministry positions us to receive the harvest of increase, giving us good ground for sowing our financial seed. It is good ground because our entire purpose is to get the gospel out to our world by way of every voice the Lord has made available to us in the generation. We operate in heaven's system of economy. As we sow our finances into the gospel, we reap the harvest of our needs met and desires fulfilled along with the joy of knowing lives are being changed wherever the good news is preached!

Praying for One Another
Partnership is connection in the spirit. Through the commitment and power of prayer, we touch each other's lives. Whether in times of celebration or disaster, we are able to be with one another as we pray and confess the Word over every situation. Knowing that as partner we are standing strong tighter is a great source of joy and strength for us all!

Commitment in Partnership
As you join the ranks of believers from around the world in partnership with Harvest Intl & Women of Character Ministries, you enter covenant relationship free of earthly pressures. God is our source of all supply, and He uses His people to respond to Him as directs in giving and participating in all our ministry outreach and initiatives. We simply ask that you seek His directions what He would have you do.
